Fun for everyone

Gorilla Club

Here's some fun and creative activities for the whole family to enjoy.

Draw a gorilla

Start off by sketching lightly with pencil

1.

Sketch 3 circles to be the head, neck and back. Make sure your head is taller and more upright than the other circles.

2.

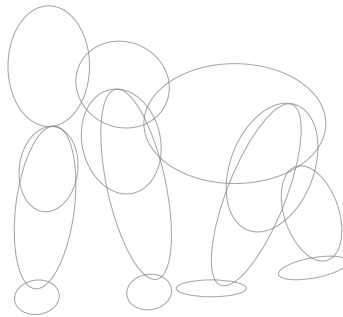

(Notice the middle 2 go up into the body)

Sketch 4 oval shapes that will become the arms and the legs.

3.

Sketch round circles onto the arms and the front leg. These will help you draw the big muscles later on.

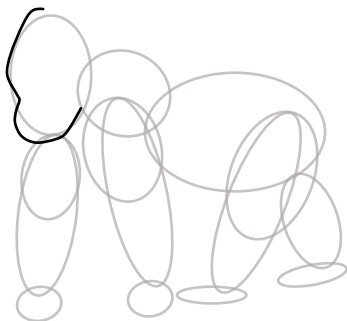

(You can don't need this on the back leg)

Don't forget to add small circles on the end of arms for hands and stretched ovals on the legs for feet!

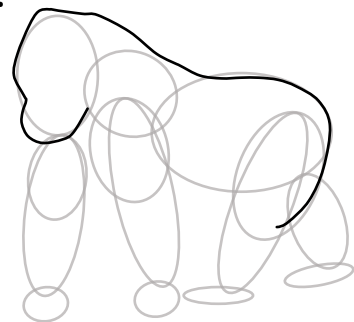

Now using pen or a darker, solid pencil line...

4.

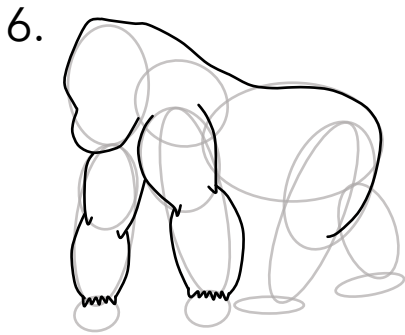

Draw a line from the chin to the top of the head, not forgetting an indent for the forehead.

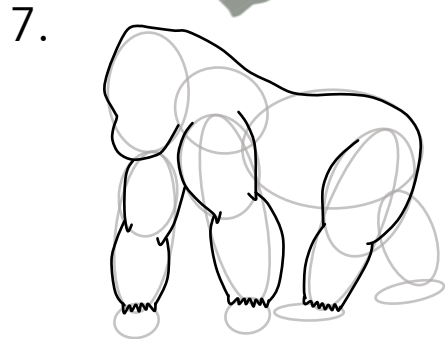

5.

Continue the line from the top of the head along the dip of the back, around the backside and finish on the muscle of the leg.

Draw the arms, separating the upper muscle from the lower arm with tufts of hair. Use zig-zag lines to make the bottom look furry too.

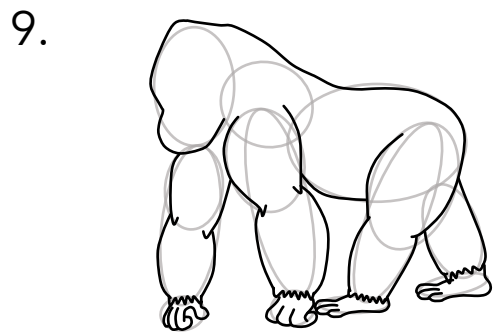

Starting at the curve you've already drawn for the backside, finish the leg in the same style as the arms.

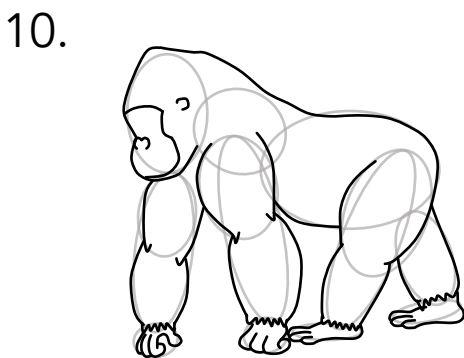

Remember it is only the lower leg as it is on the side of the body we cannot see.

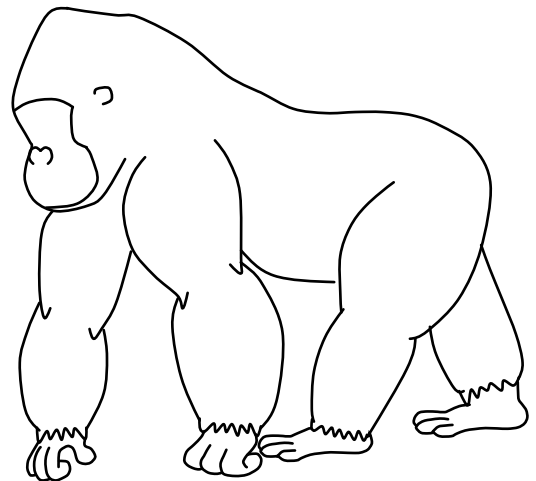

From the same backside curve, draw the back leg.

Add hands that look like knuckles and feet with extra long toes. You can also draw a tummy by joining the arm and leg.

Draw an ear and a face before colouring in.

Banana Bread

30 minutes
Preparation

1 hour
Cooking

10
Portions

You will need

Permission from an adult

1 teaspoon
Baking Powder

1 teaspoon
Mixed Spice

3-4 very ripe
bananas – the brownier the better!

150ml
Sunflower Oil

300g
Self-raising
Flour

100g
Soft Light Brown
Sugar

You will also need a 900g loaf tin and baking parchment

Method

Vegan

1. Preheat your oven to 180C/160C Fan/Gas 4.
2. Grease and line the base and sides of your tin baking parchment.
3. Peel the bananas and mash them all in a large bowl using a fork.
4. Add the sugar, flour, baking powder and mixed spice to the bowl.
5. Mix them with a wooden spoon, then add the oil and mix together well.
6. Put the cake batter into your tin. Make sure its evenly spread out.
7. Bake for 1 hour. A skewer inserted into the centre of the cake should come out a little moist, but clean when the cake is finished.
8. Leave the cake inside the tin for 15 minutes when you first take it from the oven before turning it onto a wire rack to cool.

Now to share and enjoy. Don't forget to show us your photos!

Use this template on a card like material to create your own masks. You pick the colour, or how to decorate. Collage? Paint? Colouring?

1. Cut out the outer line and use as a template for the head.
2. Cut out the middle shape for the facial features. Use this as a template or stick it straight on your gorilla head and decorate yourself.
3. Craft away!
4. Ask an adult to cut out eye holes.

Write your own poem

An acrostic poem is formed when the first letter of each of the lines makes a word. In this template, that is gorilla. The word should also be the subject of the poem. Have a go using the template below.
